

Love Song 64

We'll bail in after
We've lost control
The stakes are saying
It's all your roll
You take it with you
For all your days
I was there in from of you
In many ways

We'll jump in after
Fifteen years
The cliffs we fall off
So many fears

Baby, I was born to love you
Born to love you all darn day
Baby, I was born to love you
Not to watch you slip away
I've been charging
Charging baby for the goal
I've been guarding
Baby, I've been on patrol
I've been claiming
That this is ours to give away
I've been waning
Hell, each and every day

We'll jump in after
Fifteen years
The cliffs we fall off
So many fears

I love you I love you
I love you, love you baby
I love you I love you
Every single day
I love you I love you
I love you, love you baby
I love you I love you
Every word you say
